HCC EMT training launched in Ware

Holyoke Community College, in collaboration with the Quaboag Valley Community Development Corporation and Emergency Medical Training Solutions, is offering an EMT training program at the E2E: Quaboag Region Workforce Training and Community College Center at 79 Main St., beginning on Oct. 29.

The emergency medical technician basic course meets on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6 to 9:30 p.m. and on select Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. until Feb. 6. The 13-week program consists of more than 170 hours of in-class lectures and additional online study, training, field trips and workshops designed to prepare students for the state EMT certification exam. The course covers all aspects of emergency care including patient handling, extrication, and communication, working with law enforcement, legal issues, ethics, medical equipment, and safe transportation of patients.

The course fee is $1,099 plus $200 for texts. For more information or to register, contact

Ken White by calling 413-552-2324 or email to kwhite@hcc.edu. Additional details are available online at hcc.edu/workforce.
