

Trunk or treat at college next Friday

Holyoke Community College will offer all children a chance to do some early trick-or-treating in a campus parking lot this Friday.

A haunted bus, courtesy of the King Ward Bus Lines, and “Very Hungry Caterpillar” Volkswagen Beetle, courtesy of the Eric Carle Museum of Picture Book Art, will be on display at HCC’s third annual trunk-or-treat from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 25, in Parking Lot R behind the Bartley Center for Athletics and Recreation on the main HCC campus, 303 Homestead Ave., Holyoke. Trunk-or-treat is free and open to all. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

Close to 30 HCC clubs, departments, programs, area businesses and community groups have already signed up to decorate vehicles and give out candy at this year’s event, organized by HCC’s Education Club and Education Department.

In the event of rain, trunk-or-treat will be held in the hallways and classrooms on the first floor of the Donahue and Frost buildings.
