HCC class promises happier new year

Holyoke Community College is partnering with Pam Victor, president and founder of Happier Valley Comedy, to offer "Establishing Resilience: Building Happiness," a 2½-hour Zoom workshop Feb. 6, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Victor, a comedian and improv facilitator who prefers the title "head of happiness," will lead participants on an experiential exploration of happiness and resilience building to enhance their joy and ease at work and home.

She will share stress-relieving exercises and techniques to help people bring more well-being, laughter, gratitude, and play into their daily lives.

Holyoke Community College is partnering with Pam Victor of Happier Valley Comedy to offer a 2½-hour Zoom workshop Feb. 6, beginning at 11 a.m.

"Finding more joy in 2021 is a priority for me," said Michele Cabral, HCC executive director of Business, Corporate and Professional Development.

"As a participant in Pam's 30-day 'Happiness Experiment,' I can tell you without doubt that this class is for everyone. In this single session, participants will get an introduction into the full program while Pam shares many useful tips and resources to help people get an uplifting start to the new year," Cabral said.

The cost of the class is $99.
